

A BRIEF DESCRIPTION OF THE STYLE AND SETTING FOR THE HOTEL

Set in the centre of the idyllic Austrian mountain village Fiss, the Hotel Tirol recently celebrated its 60th anniversary with a rebuild and renovation. 22 new rooms were created, including 14 mountain-themed rooms decorated by local artist and illustrator Monika Maslowska. The new Gipfel SPA and infinity pool sits on the fourth floor with soaring views over the peaks of Fiss. And the hotel is just a five-minute walk to the Möseralm cable car, giving access to the Serfaus-Fiss-Ladis region with its 68 lifts, 214km of ski routes and some of the best ski schools in the country.

Date of reopening

7 December 2017

Name of owner

Pregenzer family

Manager

Hubert & Manuela Pregenzer

Architect

Hansjörg Kolednik, artis plan AG

Interior designer

Hansjörg Kolednik, artis plan AG, Manuela Pregenzer

Key facilities

- 51 rooms, including 22 new rooms, 14 of which are mountain-themed
- Tiroler Stuben Restaurant, Zirmstube, Vinotheque and TiroLoungeBar
- PleasureLounge: whiskey, cigars and private dining
- New Gipfel SPA wellness centre on the fourth floor, including:
 - Rooftop infinity pool and terrace
 - Sky Table
 - Stone pine bio sauna with a view
 - Oak-panelled Finnish sauna
 - Steam room
 - Infrared Kneipp therapy pool
 - Massage and relaxation room
 - Family sauna, steam room and relaxation area
- Underground car park
- Ski depot in a prime location adjacent to the lower terminus at Fiss

Starting room rate (winter)

€839 per person for a 7-night stay in a standard double room, including:

- 6-day ski pass
- Luxury board, with buffet breakfast, afternoon snack and 5-course evening set menu
- Use of the Gipfel SPA, rooftop infinity pool and family spa
- Live music in the PleasureLounge every Monday

www.hotel-tirol.net

Press contact

marketing deluxe Claudia Reichenberger Wopfnerstrasse 9, 6130 Schwaz, Austria press@marketing-deluxe.at T + 43 5242 61115

