FACTS & FIGURES

DOLLENBERG SCHWARZWALD RESORT

HISTORY

- 1950s: First a bottled beer business, next a little restaurant and then a tiny guest house and snack bar – just two rooms, three tables and twelve stools; founded by Rudolf & Anna Schmiederer, parents of current owner Meinrad Schmiederer
- 1971: Meinrad Schmiederer assumes management aged 20
- Mid-1970s: The Dollenberg spa and sport hotel begins continued expansion
- 1980s: Master chef Meinrad Schmiederer discovers the exceptional talent of his apprentice chef Martin Herrmann, who becomes chef de cuisine in 1991 and marries Schmiederer's sister Ulrike
- 1994: Takeover of catering operations at the Kurhaus & Casino and Confiserie Rumpelmayer in Baden-Baden
- 2011: Construction of DOLLINA Spa & Health
- Ongoing expansion to 5-star superior hotel resort
- Planned expansion: Function building for family celebrations, exhibitions and large events as well as children's area
