HISTORY

1st generation – Martinus Scheiber: built the first mountain refuge in the Ötztal Alps, the Ramolhaus (3,006m), in 1881. Other Alpine Club huts followed, as well as Obergurgl's first hotel.

2nd generation – Angelus Scheiber: constructed the panoramic Timmelsjoch High Alpine Road and founded Hochgurgl. He built ski lifts and the TOP Hotel Hochgurgl (opened in 1961).

3rd generation – Alban and Lotte Scheiber: transformed the area into one of the Alps' most modern ski resorts. Developed Hochgurgl's TOP amenities and services.

4th generation – Alban and Attila with wives Jasmin and Sabine Scheiber: created attractions including TOP Mountain Star and TOP Mountain Crosspoint, developed the destination to the highest standards.
